Almighty and everlasting God, have mercy upon Thy servant, Benedict, our Supreme Pontiff, and direct him, according to Thy loving kindness, in the ways of eternal salvation; that, by Thy gift, he may always desire that which is pleasing unto Thee and may accomplish it with all his might. Through Christ our Lord. Amen.

Please pray for Pope Benedict XVI's General & Mission Intentions for July:

(G) General intention; (M) Mission intention

(G) Justice in Elections. That elections in every nation may be carried out with justice, transparency, and honesty, respecting the free decisions of citizens.

(M) Urban Culture. That Christians may strive to promote everywhere, but especially in our cities, education, justice, solidarity, and peace.

FR. LANCE'S NOTE

Dear Family in Christ:

For those who would like more information about the Church's teaching about Sacred Relics please see Fr. Carlos Martins' website: www.treasuresofthechurch.com

This Friday is the Feast of our Lady of Mount Carmel, so, those who attend Mass that day will be enrolled in the Brown Scapular, if they so wish. Perhaps you can do a search to find further information on the Church's teaching regarding this very powerful sacramental. Also, please remember our Carmelite Sisters of Alexandria, SD, in your prayers as they celebrate their special Feast Day of our Lady. You are encouraged to send your prayer requests to them, as offering prayer and penance for others is part of their vocation. Donations are also needed and gratefully accepted.

July 16th is the feast of Our Lady of Mount Carmel - It is from her that we have the Brown Scapular. The brief story below explains why I always wear this sacramental and how it increases my devotion to Our Lady. Our Lady of Mount Carmel told Saint Simon Stock in 1247 that those who enrolled in the Brown Scapular and observed its obligations would not see eternal fire, as long as they were wearing the scapular as they died. In one instance, I observed the truth of this promise. A few years ago, a very elderly woman--a daily Communicant at my parish in Kansas City--died. Unbeknownst to her, she taught me how and why to wear the scapular, even though I never met her or spoke with her. Here's how.

She sat in the front pew of the church. I usually sat in the back. When I was in line for Holy Communion, she was already kneeling, in prayer. While in line for Holy Communion, a year or two before she died, I noticed the mysterious and ever-present imprint pointing out from her back, from beneath her blouse. However it was that this caught my eye, I wondered what it could be. One way or another, I researched what it could be online. One day, to my surprise, she died as that noon's Holy Mass was beginning. Hearing the details of the moments before her death has made me wear my scapular ever since.

I mention this because when the woman died her death was an exercise in the proper way to die. Something to be passed on, now that she has passed on. And what she taught me, I pass on now. She attended Holy Mass at noon Mass each day. On the day she died, I was told she went to confession prior to Holy Mass. After confession, she went to her usual place in the front pew, sitting nearest the aisle. There, she made her penance before the exposed Blessed Sacrament. (At this parish, the Blessed Sacrament is exposed for a Holy Hour prior to each day's Holy Mass.)

Kneeling there after her penance was completed, she quietly breathed her last breath.

Leaving the confessional in the back of the church as he proceeded to prepare for Holy Mass, the elderly priest that had heard her confession moments before noticed her state. Seeing her dead there as he passed by, he administered Last Rites. This priest was a priest that the deceased had hoped that she would precede in death--so that he could say her funeral Mass. A few days later he did.

So often our deaths explain the lives they end. This woman's death was a happy one, one that reflected her faith and hope, one that was an example of the promises Our Lady attached to the scapular.

What a way to go. Right after confession, right before the Blessed Sacrament, right as your favorite priest is walking by and can give you Last Rites, and can later say your funeral Mass.

And why not? She had on her scapular as she died. She had no idea what she taught me and that others may read this now, she would be all the more surprised.

Sacraments and sacramentals, don't leave this earth without them. So why not take the effort to wear a scapular already?

Our Lady of Mount Carmel and Saint Simon Stock, to whom Our Lady first gave the Brown Scapular, ora pro nobis.

Prayer to Our Lady of Mt. Carmel

O most beautiful flower of Mt. Carmel, fruitful vine, splendor of Heaven, blessed Mother of the Son of God, Immaculate Virgin assist us in this necessity. O Star of the Sea help us and show us herein you are our Mother. O Holy Mary, Mother of God, Queen of Heaven, we humbly beseech you from the bottom of our heart to succor us in this necessity. There are none that can withstand your power. O show us herein you are our Mother.

O Mary, conceived without sin, pray for us who have recourse to thee. (3 times)

Sweet Mother we place this cause in your hands. (3 times)
